

Elohim values children immensely and considers their innocence and faithfulness to be examples for believers. Here are some scriptures and reflections on how Elohim feels about children:

1. Elohim's Love and Protection for Children

- Key Scripture:
“Lo, children are an heritage of YAH: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.” (Psalm 127:3, KJV)
Children are a gift from Elohim, entrusted to parents and communities to nurture and protect. He cherishes their lives and values their spiritual upbringing.
 - Reflection:
Elohim's protective nature is evident in His commands to ensure the welfare of children, from providing for their needs to teaching them His ways.

2. The Example of Childlike Faith

- Key Scripture:
“Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of Elohim as a little child, he shall not enter therein.” (Mark 10:15, KJV)
Jesus highlights the purity, trust, and humility of children as qualities required to inherit the kingdom of Elohim.
 - Reflection:
Elohim treasures the simplicity and sincerity of a child's faith and urges believers to emulate their trust and dependence on Him.

3. Jesus' Blessing Over Children

- Key Scripture:
“But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 19:14, KJV)
Jesus rebuked those who tried to hinder children from coming to Him, showing His desire for their inclusion in the faith community.
 - Reflection:
This verse reminds us that Elohim's kingdom is accessible to everyone, regardless of age, and that children have a special place in His heart.

4. Elohim's Call to Teach and Protect Children

- Key Scripture:
“Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.”
(Proverbs 22:6, KJV)
Parents and guardians are commanded to guide children in Elohim’s truth, laying a foundation that will endure into adulthood.
 - Reflection:
Elohim entrusts adults with the responsibility of nurturing children’s spiritual growth and protecting their innocence from worldly influences.

5. Warnings Against Leading Children Astray

- Key Scripture:
“But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6, KJV)
Elohim takes the protection of children seriously and warns against leading them into sin or harming their faith.
 - Reflection:
This verse underscores the gravity of influencing children negatively, emphasizing the importance of setting Elohimly examples.

Summary:

Elohim’s perspective on children is rooted in love, value, and care. He sees them as examples of purity and faith, and He calls adults to guide and protect them. Investing in the spiritual and physical well-being of children ensures a Elohimly legacy for future generations.

Comprehensive Lesson: How Neglect of Teaching the Commandments is Causing Us to Lose our Children

Introduction: Generational falling away from Elohim often begins with the youth. Throughout Scripture, we see patterns where the neglect of teaching Elohim’s commandments to the next generation leads to a spiritual decline. This lesson explores the causes, biblical examples, and practical solutions to prevent youth from drifting away from faith, ensuring a legacy of obedience to Elohim.

Key Scripture:

- “And there arose another generation after them, which knew not YAH, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.” (Judges 2:10, KJV)

1. The Pattern of Falling Away

The Bible reveals how neglecting to train youth in Elohim's ways leads to spiritual decline over generations.

- Biblical Example:
 - Judges 2:8-12 describes how, after the death of Joshua and the elders, the next generation abandoned YAH to worship false Elohim.
 - Deuteronomy 6:6-7 commands parents to diligently teach Elohim's commandments to their children. When this is neglected, ignorance and disobedience follow.
 - Modern Parallel:
 - Today, youth face distractions from social media, secular education, and peer pressure, which often draw them away from spiritual foundations.
 - Root Causes:
 - Lack of consistent teaching and modeling of faith at home.
 - Absence of communal accountability and support.
 - Overexposure to worldly values and ideologies.

2. The Role of the Youth in Spiritual Continuity

Youth are vital to the continuation of Elohim's covenant and commandments.

- Biblical Example:
 - Psalms 78:4-7 instructs believers to teach Elohim's works to their children so they set their hope in Him and keep His commandments.
 - Proverbs 22:6 reminds us that training a child in Elohim's ways ensures they will not depart from it when they are older.
 - Modern Challenges:
 - Youth are often not taught the full counsel of Elohim's Word, leading to a superficial faith that cannot withstand trials.
 - Generational shifts prioritize cultural trends over biblical truths, causing young people to question or abandon their faith.

3. Generational Consequences of Falling Away

When youth turn from Elohim, the effects ripple through families and societies.

- Biblical Example:

- In 1 Samuel 8:4-7, Israel rejected Elohim's leadership and demanded a king to be like other nations. This decision, influenced by generational drift, led to spiritual and political consequences.
 - Practical Outcomes:
 - Loss of moral direction and increased secularism.
 - Broken families and weakened communities.
 - A culture that rejects Elohim's commandments, leading to judgment (e.g., Hosea 4:6).

4. Preventing Generational Falling Away

Faithful instruction and intentional discipleship can reverse the trend of spiritual decline.

- Practical Steps:
 1. Teach Elohim's Word Diligently:
 - "And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children." (Deuteronomy 6:6-7, KJV)
 - Parents and mentors must prioritize regular Bible study and discussions about Elohim's commandments.
 2. Model Faithful Living:
 - Youth learn by example. "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." (1 Corinthians 11:1, KJV)
 - Demonstrate obedience, humility, and love in everyday life.
 3. Create a Strong Faith Community:
 - Surround youth with Elohimly influences through fellowship, mentorship, and accountability. "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." (Proverbs 27:17, KJV)
 4. Equip Youth to Resist Worldly Influences:
 - Teach discernment and encourage youth to view life through a biblical lens. "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind." (Romans 12:2, KJV)
 5. Encourage Active Participation in Faith:
 - Involve youth in ministry, worship, and service. "Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers." (1 Timothy 4:12, KJV)

5. The Role of the Church

The church plays a critical role in preventing generational falling away by providing resources, mentorship, and support.

- Programs for Youth:
 - Bible-based youth groups and mentorship programs.
 - Opportunities for leadership development and service.
- Intergenerational Worship:
 - Encourage unity among all age groups to foster a sense of belonging and continuity in faith.
- Accountability Structures:
 - Partner with parents to reinforce biblical teachings at home and in the church.

6. Encouragement for the Youth

Elohim has a purpose for every young person, and they are called to be lights in the world.

- Biblical Encouragement:
 - “Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not.” (Ecclesiastes 12:1, KJV)
 - “For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith YAH, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.” (Jeremiah 29:11, KJV)
- Practical Encouragement:
 - Remind youth of their identity in Christ and their role in advancing Elohim’s kingdom.
 - Celebrate their spiritual milestones and encourage perseverance in their walk with Elohim.

Conclusion: Generational falling away from Elohim begins with the youth, but it can be prevented through intentional discipleship, strong family foundations, and active church involvement. By obeying Elohim’s command to teach His ways diligently, we can equip the next generation to stand firm in their faith and pass it on to those who come after them.

- Closing Scripture:

- “That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: That they might set their hope in Elohim, and not forget the works of Elohim, but keep his commandments.” (Psalm 78:6-7, KJV)

Let us commit to preserving faith across generations by investing in the spiritual growth of our youth today.

Lesson/Sermon: WHAT SOCIAL MEDIA DOING TO OUR YOUTH!

Introduction: In today’s digital age, social media has become a dominant force in shaping the thoughts, values, and behaviors of young people. Platforms like TikTok, Instagram, and YouTube offer constant entertainment but often promote secular values that conflict with spiritual growth. As followers of Elohim, it is essential to navigate this digital world wisely, ensuring we remain steadfast in our faith.

Key Scripture:

- “Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.” (Colossians 3:2, KJV)

1. The Challenge of Hyperconnectivity Social media keeps us connected 24/7, yet this hyperconnectivity often leads to distraction and a focus on worldly things.

- Biblical Insight:

- “Be still, and know that I am Elohim.” (Psalm 46:10, KJV)
 - Social media rarely allows for stillness. Instead, it fills every moment with noise and busyness. Elohim calls us to be still and seek His presence, which cannot be found in a constant stream of notifications.
- “Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.” (Ephesians 5:16, KJV)
 - Hyperconnectivity can lead to wasted time. The Bible encourages us to use our time wisely for Elohim’s purposes, not squander it on endless scrolling.

- Application:

- Set boundaries on your social media usage to prioritize time with Elohim in prayer, studying His Word, and serving others.
- Take regular breaks from social media to reflect, pray, and reconnect with Elohim.

2. The Danger of Influencer Culture Social media influencers often glorify lifestyles that emphasize materialism, fame, and self-expression over faith and obedience to Elohim’s commandments.

- Biblical Insight:

- “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven.” (Matthew 6:19-20, KJV)
 - Influencer culture glorifies earthly wealth and possessions, but Elohim calls us to focus on eternal treasures.
- “For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.” (1 John 2:16, KJV)
 - Many influencers promote the "pride of life," encouraging self-centeredness rather than humility and service to Elohim.

- Application:

- Evaluate the content and influencers you follow. Are they pointing you toward Elohim or leading you away from Him?
- Follow Elohimly role models who inspire you to live a life of faith, humility, and service.

3. The Trap of Echo Chambers Algorithms amplify content that aligns with personal preferences, often reinforcing secular or anti-religious ideologies while limiting exposure to faith-based messages.

- Biblical Insight:

- “The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.” (Proverbs 12:15, KJV)
 - Echo chambers make it easy to believe only what we want to hear, rather than seeking Elohim’s truth.
- “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.” (Psalm 119:105, KJV)
 - Elohim’s Word is the ultimate source of truth and guidance, cutting through the noise of the digital world.

- Application:

- Actively seek out faith-based content and engage with communities that uplift and strengthen your walk with Elohim.
- Balance social media consumption with regular Bible study and fellowship with other believers.

Practical Steps to Guard Your Heart in the Digital Age:

1. Establish Digital Discipline:

- Limit daily screen time and prioritize time with Elohim. Consider setting specific times for prayer and Bible study.
- Use tools like app timers or accountability partners to help manage your usage.

2. Follow Content That Glorifies Elohim:

- Subscribe to faith-based influencers, podcasts, and ministries that encourage spiritual growth.
- Share uplifting and biblical content to be a light in the digital space.

3. Renew Your Mind Daily:

- “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of Elohim.” (Romans 12:2, KJV)
- Spend time daily in Elohim’s Word to align your thoughts and values with His.

4. Engage in Real-Life Fellowship:

- Attend church regularly and participate in small groups or ministries to build genuine connections with other believers.

Conclusion: Social media and the digital age present unique challenges, but they also provide opportunities to glorify Elohim and spread His Word. As we navigate this landscape, let us remain vigilant, guarding our hearts and minds against worldly influences. By focusing on Elohim’s truth and using our time wisely, we can resist the distractions of hyperconnectivity, influencer culture, and echo chambers.

If the current trends of social media dominance, secular influences, and diminishing faith-based values continue unchecked, the projected outcomes for youth, particularly in their spiritual and moral development, could be concerning. Here are some key projections, framed with biblical warnings and insights:

1. Increased Disconnection from Elohim

- Biblical Insight:

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy.” (2 Timothy 3:1-2, KJV)

If youth continue to prioritize self-expression, materialism, and secular ideologies over faith, there will likely be a sharp decline in the number of young people who genuinely seek Elohim or prioritize His commandments.

- Projected Impact:

Many youth could grow increasingly self-centered and spiritually disconnected, leading to a lack of moral grounding, peace, and purpose.

2. Rising Mental Health Challenges

- Biblical Insight:
“There is no peace, saith YAH, unto the wicked.” (Isaiah 57:21, KJV)
Social media fosters comparison, anxiety, and identity crises, all of which can spiral into depression and mental health struggles.
- Projected Impact:
The constant pursuit of validation through likes, followers, and online approval may lead to greater feelings of inadequacy, loneliness, and mental distress. This, in turn, can create a generation lacking emotional resilience and spiritual hope.

3. Diminished Moral Clarity

- Biblical Insight:
“Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness.” (Isaiah 5:20, KJV)
Without the influence of Elohim’s Word, secular values may redefine morality, causing youth to adopt lifestyles and choices contrary to biblical teachings.
- Projected Impact:
A widespread normalization of sin could lead to a society where truth and righteousness are dismissed, and where Elohim's laws are replaced by relativism.

4. Fragmentation of the Family

- Biblical Insight:
“And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.”
(Deuteronomy 11:19, KJV)
As digital distractions dominate households, there could be less focus on biblical instruction and family connection.
- Projected Impact:
Families may become more fractured, with parents and children living isolated lives even within the same home, further contributing to spiritual and emotional voids.

5. Loss of Elohim-Given Identity

- Biblical Insight:
“So Elohim created man in his own image, in the image of Elohim created he him; male and female created he them.” (Genesis 1:27, KJV)

Social media promotes curated and artificial identities, leading young people to lose sight of their Elohim-given worth and purpose.

- Projected Impact:

Youth may increasingly struggle with understanding who they are, leading to confusion about identity, purpose, and their place in Elohim's plan.

6. Spiritual Decline Across Generations

- Biblical Insight:

"There arose another generation after them, which knew not YAH, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel." (Judges 2:10, KJV)

If this trend persists, each subsequent generation may drift further away from the faith, leading to widespread spiritual famine.

- Projected Impact:

A lack of faith could result in moral decay, increased societal instability, and a failure to pass on the knowledge of Elohim's commandments to future generations.

What Can Be Done to Reverse This?

1. Intentional Discipleship:

Churches, families, and faith communities must intentionally disciple the youth, teaching them the Word of Elohim and modeling Elohimly living.

2. Digital Accountability:

Encourage limits on social media use and promote platforms and content that glorify Elohim.

3. Parental Involvement:

Parents must actively guide their children's spiritual development, teaching them biblical values and creating spaces for real conversations about faith and life.

4. Emphasizing Elohimly Identity:

Help youth understand their worth in Elohim's eyes and teach them to resist the pull of secular identity markers.

5. Prayer and Intercession:

Earnest prayer for the youth is essential. Pray that Elohim will open their eyes to truth and guard them against spiritual deception.

By addressing these challenges through a faith-centered approach, there is hope to guide the youth back to Elohim, ensuring they fulfill their purpose and walk in His truth. What steps can you take within your community to address this issue?

Closing Scripture:

- “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.”
(Philippians 4:8, KJV)

May we use this guidance to navigate the digital world with wisdom and faith, always seeking to honor Elohim in all that we do.
